The stars with deep amaze.
Stand fixed in steadfast gaze.
Bending one way their precious influence.
And will not take their flight.
For all their morning light.
Or Lucifer that often warned them thence.
But in their glimmering orbs did glow.
Until their lord himself bid them go.

- Milton

Introduction: The Great Deception

People forget Lucifer is an angel.
A fallen one, but an angel none the less.

According to Ezekiel 28:13, Lucifer truly was an amazing being to behold: "You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering: the sardius, topaz, and diamond, beryl, onyx and jasper, sapphire, turquoise and emerald with gold. The workmanship of your timbrels and pipes was prepared for you on the day you were created."

The Morning Star

Lucifer is a Latin word that was used as a name for the "morning star" (Venus) that precedes the rising of the sun.

Because Venus orbits between the Earth and the Sun, it can never be seen during the dark of midnight.

It can be seen in the eastern morning sky for an hour or so before the Sun rises, and in the western night sky for an hour or so after the sun has set.

Use of this name in reference to the Devil stems from a particular interpretation of a passage from Isaiah that speaks of someone who is given the name of "Morning Star" as fallen from the sky.

However, elsewhere in the Bible the same word is used for the "morning star" with no relation to the Devil. Lucifer also means light-bringer.

The Bringer of Light

In Clavis Magica Artium we read:

"The fall of the splendid angel in dizzy descent through the heavens did ignite the sun.

"The angel then falling did bring light."

Let's think about that for a moment.

The Devil (Lucifer) has always been associated with darkness and death, yet he is the bringer of light.

There is something very odd about all this.

Could it be that poor old Lucifer has been the innocent victim of a smear campaign by Christianity in general and the Catholic Church in particular?

The Eternal Scapegoat

Some of us blame the Devil for every misfortune, for example:

On the evening of June 9, 1979, a fire broke out on the Ghost Train ride at Sydney's Luna Park (Australia). Six children and a number of adults died in the blaze.

A woman who lost her husband and two young sons in the tragedy has, for the past 30 years, kept a photo which has haunted her ever since.

It shows a "witchdoctor" dressed in a black magic outfit who picked her son out of a crowd and posed with him just hours before the boy died.

On the morning of the fire the family watched a street parade at Circular Quay, across Sydney Harbor from Luna Park.

A man in a witchdoctor costume (horns, skull mask, animal skins, moccasins, and carrying a rattle) left the parade and pushed through the crowd towards the boy.

"Do you mind if I have my photo taken with your son?" the mysterious man asked, placing his hand on the boy's shoulder.

Hours later, the boy, his father and brother were all dead.

"He wasn't frightened by the man," the boy's mother told a reporter.

"He was a little bit nervous to stand close to him, but just took it in his stride."

Without saying a word, the mystery man returned to the "International Year of the Child" parade as quickly as he had appeared.

The boy's mother felt that it was an omen.

"Looking back now, I see it as part of a big plan.

"A plan far beyond earthly reasoning with other forces involved.

"The Devil or something like that," she told the reporter.

It is easy to blame the Devil for every bad thing that happens to us.

But is it really his fault?

Sometimes bad luck is just that . . . bad luck.

The Bible and Lucifer

He is known by many names in the New Testament: Satan, devil, adversary, enemy, accuser, old serpent, great dragon, Belial and Beelzebub, but never as Lucifer.

Matthew 4:1 "Then was Jesus led up of the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil."

Matthew 4:10 "Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shall worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve."

Matthew 4:11 "Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him."

Matthew 10:25 "It is enough for the disciple that he be as is his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?"

Matthew 12:24 "But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils."

Matthew 13:39 "The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels."

Mark 4:15 "And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts."

Luke 10:18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

Peter 5:8 "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour."

Revelation 12:9 "And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

The Catholic Church has made Lucifer responsible for all of man's shortcomings.

Yet each of us is born with free will to do good or evil, and we should not blame an angel for the evils of the world.

If we accept the meaning of his name as literal, and there is no reason not to, then it is Lucifer who can chase away the darkness in our lives.

Luciferian Magic

I know this magical system works because I have used it to find gold, and begin a writing career.

The historic township of Hill End is located north-west of Sydney, Australia, in the rugged mountain ranges of the Central Tablelands.

Situated in the heart of once highly productive goldfields, Hill End attracted thousands of people from the world over during the boom years of 1871-1872.

It was here that the single largest piece of gold ever to be found, was unearthed on the night of October 19, 1872.

I traveled to Hill End a number of times during the 80s with my father and a mutual friend to partake in a favorite pastime of ours . . . gold fossicking.

On one occasion I used visualization to find a few specks of gold, another time I called upon Lucifer.

I had awoken early and, as the others slept on in our tent, stepped outside for a breath of fresh air.

I looked up and could quite clearly see the Morning Star in the sky above.

In my mind I said: "Lucifer, guide me to where the gold is."

A couple of hours later, as we three crouched by a river panning for gold, I noticed a bright, golden light shining in my pan.

It was a small (very small) piece of gold, but it was the biggest piece found the entire trip.

And I have the angel Lucifuge Rofocal to thank for my writing career.

I had called to Lucifuge at one of the darkest hours of my life, and that call was answered.

Let me assure you that you will not be selling your soul to the Devil in return for favors.

Yes, you will be calling upon Lucifer and his messengers to change your life into what you want it to be.

But you will be utilizing the "benevolent" nature of these fallen angels to help you.

Part One: The Light Bringer

White witches make loud noises about how their magic is worked for only altruistic reasons, and how black magic is used for evil and selfish reasons.

Yet, I ask you, are not most of the things white witches do, done either directly or indirectly for their own benefit and gratification, both spiritual and material?

One must not draw a rigid distinction between black and white magic, as each is a reflection of the other.

Another point to watch out for, is that your request will be granted by the easiest route, so consider how it would most likely come to you.

And make sure that you really want what you are asking for.

If you are realistic and specific, then coincidence after coincidence will occur to bring about the desired result.

The Conjunction of Lucifer

The conjunction is spoken when the planet Venus appears in the East before sunrise when you can stand either outside or at a window, with the morning star in the sky above.

Gaze steadily at the radiant light of the morning star and solemnly say:

Lucifer, absolute ruler of this world, lord of all things that walketh upon the earth, hear my call.

Lucifer, governing the fortunes and misfortunes of your subjects, hear my call.

Lucifer, sublime and luminous of character, hear my call.

Lucifer, I entreat you to send me your messenger (name of spirit) from whatever part of the world he should be, this night at either. . . or. . ., at which time he shall grant all that I ask of him.

Lucifer, use your power to be favorable and enable me to succeed in this undertaking.

You will, of course, state the appropriate hours where the conjunction says "this night at either. . ."

The two hours will depend on which day of the week the conjunction is spoken.

At the appointed hour sit in a darkened room lit by a single, white candle on a table in front of you.

When you feel the time is right, recite the conjunction of the spirit as detailed below.

The Conjunction of Lucifuge Rofocale

Come, Lucifuge!

Come, Lucifuge!

Come, Lucifuge!

I ask that you make me rich as soon as possible.

In the Name of your Master, Lucifer, so mote it be.

The Conjunction of Satanacha

Come, Satanacha!

Come, Satanacha!

The Conjuration of Sargatana

Come, Sargatana!

The Conjuration of Naberus

Come, Naberus!

Come, Naberus!

Come, Naberus!

I ask that you reveal what will befall in the future.

In the Name of your Master, Lucifer, so mote it be.

When you have recited the conjuration, relax with your eyes closed for a few minutes.

Then open your eyes, and say:

O Spirit (name of spirit), I thank you.

Extinguish the candle.

Variation of the Lucifer Conjunction

If you wish Lucifer to influence your affairs, this is the conjunction to use.

On any day of the week, with the morning star in the sky above, sit in a darkened room lit by a single, white candle on a table in front of you.

When you feel the time is right, say:

Lucifer, absolute ruler of this world, lord of all things that walketh upon the earth, hear my call.

Lucifer, governing the fortunes and misfortunes of your subjects, hear my call.

Lucifer, sublime and luminous of character, hear my call.

Come, Lucifer!
Come, Lucifer!
Come, Lucifer!
Lucifer, I ask that you influence my affairs.
Lucifer, my desire is . . .

Sit quietly, with eyes closed, in the dark for a few minutes pretending that your request has been granted. Then open your eyes, and say:

Lucifer, I thank thee.

Extinguish the candle.

Part Two: A Light Less Bright

The Subordinate Spirits

Each of the six messengers have subordinate spirits.
Each of the subordinate spirits have powers and qualities which are unique to them.
If conjuring a subordinate spirit, you will need to place a white candle on a small table in front of you.

The Powers and Qualities of the Subordinate Spirits

Bael can help you become wise.
Agares can help you learn a foreign language.
Marbas can bring secret knowledge.
Amon can bring love and reconciliation.
Barbatos can bring money.
Gusion can bring honors and fame.
Bathim can help you to avoid being seen.
Eligos can bring powerful friends.
Valefor can help return stolen goods.

The Conjunction of the Subordinate Spirits

This is the conjunction you will use to summon any of the nine subordinate spirits.
I use Bathim as an example.

Come, Bathim!
Come, Bathim!
Come, Bathim!
I ask that you influence my affairs.
My desire is . . .
In the Name of your Master, Lucifer, so mote it be.

When you have recited the conjunction, relax with your eyes closed for a few minutes.
Then open your eyes, and say:

Bathim, I thank you.

Lucifuge Rofocal

"Follow me and take the treasure I will show you."
